

GEMA Premium Live Distribution Service

Early & low cost distribution for large-scale concerts

Under certain conditions, revenue from large-scale concerts in Germany may be distributed early.

For qualifying large-scale concerts in Germany, the following conditions apply:

- Payment timing: distribution may take place as early as 30 days after the concert
- Cost deduction: 3 % of the licensed amount
- Premium live supplement: an additional 8 % is applied to the amount calculated after the deduction of costs

This results in a payout rate of approximately 105 % of the amount licensed for the works concerned.

The Premium Live Distribution Service applies to concerts that meet the following criteria:

- At least 90% of the works performed at the event are by you or your community of creators.
- The event must be licensed through the U-K tariff.
- Please submit the show registration to us at least 4 weeks before the show, including a provisional setlist.
- Application for Premium Live Distribution must be submitted no later than 6 weeks after the show.
- The service applies only to the headliner of the event.
- The total license fees of the event amount to at least € 10,000 net, excluding tax.
- The license invoice has been paid by the concert organizer.
- The final and verified setlist for the event has been submitted to GEMA.

Please send requests or questions regarding the GEMA Premium Live Distribution Service to:
pl-team@gema.de. Thank you.