All about membership

No.	Definition	Description	Price from 01 February 2018
1	Registering a new pseudonym	A pseudonym is a name that a creator can use for his public appearance. It is possible to use one's pseudonym to register works, for example. Registering your first edition is free of charge.	Charge from the second pseudonym onwards (plus 19% VAT): €40.00 as a one-off per registration
2	Registering a new edition with your own or without your account number	On request, we register editions for publishers. An edition is located under the umbrella of a music publisher. Selected parts of the publishing repertoire can be published to the public under the name of the edition. A proper account number [for the edition] has the advantage that you can list documentation and distribution data separately from the publisher. Registering your first edition is free of charge.	Charge from the second pseudonym onwards (plus 19% VAT): €100.00 as a one-off per registration
